Dear Taskforce

Many will write at length on this topic but my main point is that as one of the wealthiest nations in the world, and taking account of our proud history of welcome, I think it is behoven on Australia to be generous in terms of international aid. As such, I support all moves as fast as possible for Australia to have an aid program that meets the Millennium Development Goals.

Anything less, and to paraphrase the British, is basing our economy on the backs of the worlds poor.

Yours sincerely

David Bailey
